Max Hirsch's Bo McMillan won the closing dash of five furlongs for two-year-olds. Lang, who had the leg up on M. L. Schwartz's Pennon, the favorite, carried Rork, the second choice, almost to the outside fence to the turn into the stretch. This enabled Marinelli to save much ground by hugging the rail and to win the race, as Penton continued to bear out all the way home.

Ryan Pays $13,000 for Sister of Derby Winner

Johnny Loftus, trainer of the Oak Ridge Stable, has evidently impressed Thomas Fortune Ryan during the few weeks he has been in charge of the latter's thoroughbreds. Mr. Ryan paid $35.000 for four of the thirteen two-year-olds of the A. B. Sprockels California breeding farm, offered at auction in the paddock at Jamaica yesterday before the opening race. C. F. Fitzgerald, acting for Mr. Ryan, secured for $13.000 a full sister of the great Morvich. The filly is named Runelise. Benjamin Block, owner of Morvich, bid as high as $12,000, then stopped.

Morvich, bid as high as $12,000, then stopped.

The Oak Ridge Stable paid top price of the sale for Runvise, a half-brother of Morvich. This was $16,000. It paid $4,500 for a colt, Sakeh, and $1,500 for Runmats. The thirteen two-year-olds sold for $58,850, or an average of $1,328.

in Montreal on July 1 for the heavyweight championship of the world.
While there has been as much mystery as possible thrown about this match by those directly interested in it, the best inside information seems to indicate that Tex Rickard and Frank Flournoy will put a concrete proposition up to Dempsey and his manager Jack Kearns, just as soon as the Aquitania, on which they are homeward bound, sticks her nose inside Sandy Hook some time to-morrow.
